

AMI Screen Recorder Guide

Overview of Screen Recorder

AMI Screen Recorder is the best solution to record the screen for Android 5.0 and above. It does not require ROOT and NO TIME LIMIT, easy to use.

Feature in AMI Screen Recorder

- Record screen with Full HD, HD mode or auto mode (with best quality depend on your device)
- Record screen with Audio or No Audio
- With face camera
- Count down timer
- Video Effect: such as White and Black, Speia, ...
- Cut Video
- Magic button: You can stop recorder by touch the right coner of screen

How to customize this app

- + All attribute is define in /values/arrays and /values/strings of Module App. So if you need change some attribute you must change values in this and change the values in the Constant.java file
- + To redefine the setting go to /xml/preference.xml of module App to change the setting for app
- + To redefine icon, image of app -> go vetor assert of android studio to choice new
- + To redefine admod ID please goto /values/strings -> find it and change it
- + To change the action of recording -> goto ChatHeadService.java to change

+ To change setting of Video Effect, Cut Video, ... goto Sample module to change

Structure of application

+ There are 5 modules in this application include: android, app, domain, effect and sample module.

- App module: Process interface of this application, recorder service, store data ... Please goto ChatHeadService to clearly service record screen.
- Android, domain, effect and sample module process video processing such as: video effect, cut video and any thing related to video